

Society Chat OF THE Week

SCHOFIELD BALL SEASON'S SUCCESS

Dancing Found a Social Diversion for the Smart Set This Week.

THE reception and ball given Thursday evening at Schofield Barracks by the officers who have recently received news of their promotion was unsurpassed in brilliancy and splendor. The officers stationed at Leliehua have been hosts to a number of smart social functions. They are much adept at entertaining, and each entertainment seems more elaborate and enjoyable than its predecessor. The ball was held in the post hall, which was converted into an appearance of Maryland by the means of palms, tree ferns, flowers and trailing vines. The regimental colors, standards and guidons gave a distinctive and characteristic note to the decorations. The Fifth Cavalry band furnished the music. Dancing was kept up until the wee small hours. The receiving party stood in a bow of ferns and flowers. The following officers and their wives stood in the receiving line: Colonel Homer W. Wheeler, Lieutenant Colonel Fred W. Foster, Major Foster, Major H. C. Benson, Major and Mrs. Willard A. Holbrook, Major and Mrs. C. C. Walcott, Major J. M. Jenkins, Major and Mrs. N. F. McClure, Captain and Mrs. F. J. Koester, Mrs. G. B. Rodney, Mrs. Louis Foster, Mrs. A. B. Dockery, Mrs. G. L. Morrison.

Before midnight a delicious buffet supper was served. After supper the assembled guests danced waltzes and douze times until three o'clock. Some of the guests motored out; a number of them took advantage of the special car that left Honolulu at half-after seven and returned to town at about three a. m. This beautiful entertainment was not only enjoyed by the service set, but a number of civilians were included on the invitation list. As beautifully gowned as the Army, Navy and Honolulu society women have been at the many brilliant functions this winter, all other affairs were outdone by the exquisite robing at the ball Thursday night. Mrs. Frederick W. Foster looked beautiful in white lace, a large Jacqueminot rose was worn in the hair, and a large bouquet of the same variety of roses was carried. Mrs. Willard Holbrook wore a chic gold spangled dress. Mrs. C. C. Walcott's gown of black was exceedingly becoming, the long stemmed American Beauty roses carried by this attractive Army matron lent additional beauty to the toilette. Mrs. N. F. McClure was clad in an elaborate apricot satin with a heavily embroidered panel cut in the latest Parisian style. Mrs. F. J. Koester looked stunning in a black jet gown. Mrs. G. B. Rodney wore a New York creation of maize satin with touches of gold. Mrs. A. B. Dockery was gowned in a beautiful frock of black satin veiled with jetted tulle. Mrs. G. L. Morrison wore a chic toilette of black crepe de chine, the corsage being trimmed with real lace. Mrs. Montgomery Macomb wore one of the most beautiful gowns of grey satin, veiled with chiffon, with silver trimmings. Mrs. Walter Cowles' costume of black satin and jet was much admired. Mrs. Neville looked regal in a sulphur colored crepe silk trimmed in cloth of gold. One of the most stunning young matrons was Mrs. Edward J. Timberlake, who wore a charming baby blue satin, with a tulle studded with crystals; lilies of the valley were worn in her corsage.

FOR THE HOUSEKEEPER

How 25c. Can Be Made to Save
Hundreds of Dollars

True economy is the spending of money to the best advantage, and there is no better household economy than the purchase and use of Stearns' Electric Rat and Roach Paste.

A 25c. box will often prevent the destruction of hundreds of dollars of property, by thoroughly exterminating the rats and mice which gnaw and eat articles of value. It is also sure death to cockroaches, waterbugs and other vermin.

Sold everywhere. Be sure to get the genuine, 25c. and $1.00. Stearns' Electric Paste Co., Chicago, Ill.

Mrs. Putnam looked extremely pretty in blue silk with an accessory of real lace. Mrs. Eric Knudsen was clad in a Papuan model of black spangled net over satin; a bandana of cerise velvet was worn in her hair and was becoming to her burnette type of beauty. Mrs. Turner of Fort Ruger was a picture in crepe de chine with silver trimmings. Mrs. Pardee wore a pretty gown of striped chiffon over satin. Miss Cartwright of Fort Shafter was clad in a Paris gown of pink satin, with an overdress of silver. Mrs. Johnstone wore a handsome gown of black jet; exquisite diamonds were worn. Mrs. L. Tenney Peck was charming in a real lace robe over pink satin. Miss Katherine Stephens was one of the most popular and attractive girls. One of the smartest frocks was worn by Mrs. Ernest Waterhouse—a French model of white striped chiffon over silk; gold bands were worn in her coiffure, which was dressed in an exceedingly becoming style. Mrs. Johnson, of Fort Ruger, wore a beautiful gown of spangled net. Numerous other stunning costumes were worn.

Among those present were Colonel Wilder, Colonel Wheeler, Lieut.-Col. and Mrs. Foster, Major Benson, Captain Houlahan, Major and Mrs. Holbrook, Major and Mrs. Walcott, Major J. M. Jenkins, Major and Mrs. N. F. McClure, Captain and Mrs. F. J. Koester, Mrs. G. B. Rodney, Mrs. Louis Foster, Mrs. A. B. Dockery, Mrs. G. L. Morrison. Before midnight a delicious buffet supper was served. After supper the assembled guests danced waltzes and douze times until three o'clock. Some of the guests motored out; a number of them took advantage of the special car that left Honolulu at half-after seven and returned to town at about three a. m. This beautiful entertainment was not only enjoyed by the service set, but a number of civilians were included on the invitation list. As beautifully gowned as the Army, Navy and Honolulu society women have been at the many brilliant functions this winter, all other affairs were outdone by the exquisite robing at the ball Thursday night. Mrs. Frederick W. Foster looked beautiful in white lace, a large Jacqueminot rose was worn in the hair, and a large bouquet of the same variety of roses was carried. Mrs. Willard Holbrook wore a chic gold spangled dress. Mrs. C. C. Walcott's gown of black was exceedingly becoming, the long stemmed American Beauty roses carried by this attractive Army matron lent additional beauty to the toilette. Mrs. N. F. McClure was clad in an elaborate apricot satin with a heavily embroidered panel cut in the latest Parisian style. Mrs. F. J. Koester looked stunning in a black jet gown. Mrs. G. B. Rodney wore a New York creation of maize satin with touches of gold. Mrs. A. B. Dockery was gowned in a beautiful frock of black satin veiled with jetted tulle. Mrs. G. L. Morrison wore a chic toilette of black crepe de chine, the corsage being trimmed with real lace. Mrs. Montgomery Macomb wore one of the most beautiful gowns of grey satin, veiled with chiffon, with silver trimmings. Mrs. Walter Cowles' costume of black satin and jet was much admired. Mrs. Neville looked regal in a sulphur colored crepe silk trimmed in cloth of gold. One of the most stunning young matrons was Mrs. Edward J. Timberlake, who wore a charming baby blue satin, with a tulle studded with crystals; lilies of the valley were worn in her corsage.

Mrs. L. Tenney Peck's Luncheon. The decorations at the luncheon of Mrs. L. Tenney Peck was indicative of Spring time, and were beautiful in every detail. The place cards were of young debutantes, clad in light flowered organdies, with one arm filled with Spring flowers. A dainty light colored parasol was carried in the middle of the table on a gauze center piece embroidered in violets. Baby maiden hair, and violets were strewn carelessly over the cloth. The bon-bons were also in a naive shade, one of the chief attractions of the entertainment was that every thing harmonized so beautifully. Corsage bouquets of violets were found at each place, and were worn by the guests. Among those present were, and others.

AMERICAN WOMEN IN PUBLIC EYE

MRS. LEWIS HARCOURT

Mrs. Harcourt is a famous beauty and society woman who will be prominent in coronation festivities.

Mrs. A. Newton Locke, Mrs. Henry Bond Restarick, Madame Hayselden, Mrs. Ault, Mrs. Edward Tenney, Mrs. Brunchoret, Mrs. Edward Davis, Mrs. Burham, Mrs. C. Hedeman, Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham, Mrs. Arthur Marx, Mrs. Lorrin Thurston and Mrs. Elizabeth Church.

Dancing Party at Kunalu Club House.

Among the delightful dancing parties of the week was the hop given by the members of the Kunalu boat club. This entertainment was given last evening at their club house. Miss Florence Hoffman, Miss Elizabeth Low and Miss Alice Smith had charge of the decorations and much praise is due them for great artistic ability was displayed in the adornment of the club house. The interior was decorated with branches of the pepper tree, feathery bamboo and pennants of different colleges. Banana plants with their spreading tropical leaves made an ideal decoration for the corners of the dancing floor. The Hawaiian Quintette Club was screened from view by means of palms and other potted plants. Between dances promenades were enjoyed on the wide galleries overlooking the water and surrounding the club house. Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Johnstone, Mr. and Mrs. Allan Jaeger, Mr. and Mrs. W. Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Sutton, Mr. and Mrs. N. Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. F. Lowrey, Mr. and Mrs. Nichol, Mr. and Mrs. K. Brown, Mr. and Mrs. W. Turner acted as chaperones for the following young society folk: The Misses Rosie Herbert, Carol Low, Beatrice Castle, Helen Girvin, Ethel McKenzie, Catherine Goodale, Mary Catton, Katherine Stevens, Jordans (2), Brown (2), J. Scooby, Grace Davis, Pratt (2), Marjorie Freeth, Helen North, Alice Cooper, Julia and Lydia McStocker, Claire and Edith Williams, Grace Robertson, Vera Dugman, Ray Bell, Marion Phinney, Minna Berger, Laura Atherton, Louise Girade, Josephine and Ruth Soper, Edith Ewart, Jessie Kennedy, Callie Lucas, Angers, Mr. Armstrong, B. Soper, A. Tucker, J. Atherton, B. Hopper, B. McCriston, C. Dodge, G. Blair, A. Dow, C. Hall, M. Fraser, F. Hoffman, H. Lucas, E. Low, M. Magoon, H. Shaw, J. Shaw, Della Stone, Alice Smith, Ruth Smith, A. Olson, H. Young, E. Peterson, H. Jones, S. Clark, S. Lucas, M. McIntyre, Frances Cousens, Cordelia and Marjorie Gilman, Esther White, Fanny Hoogs, Muriel Howard, Julia Peabody, Messrs. H. and W. Rycroft, A. Clark, Charles Herbert, Gillespie, A. Jordan, H. Cobb, A. Robinson, Henry Damon, G. Irwin, G. Fuller, W. Kendall, C. Jenkins, W. Wairall, D. Gilmore, Howells, Rothwell, S. Johnson, W. Lymer, S. E. Case, Carmichael, A. Cooper, L. V. King, J. F. Soper, G. Warren, P. Deverell, J. Guard, C. McWayne, G. Whitney, Percy Clegghorn, R. Thompson, R. McCriston, A. Ewart, W. Wright, D. S. Larson, Catton (2), E. Blair, H. Parsons, Burrell, Ellis, Parham, Park, C. Lucas, B. Sumner, M. Nichol, B. Desha, J. Ashley, F. Hoogs, Percy Nottage, C. Ramus, Dr. Klegg.

MRS. ALFRED CASTLE

Mrs. Castle was re-elected president National Congress of Mothers at recent convention.

Mrs. Alfred Castle's Luncheon.

Wednesday Mrs. Alfred Castle gave a luncheon and "pitcher shower" in honor of Miss Ida Koepke, the bride-elect of Mr. Sherwood Lowrey. Each one of the guests brought an appropriate gift. These tokens consisted of rolling pins, sauce pans and frying pans of every description, bread boards, cake cutters, granite buckets, knives and forks, in fact all the articles necessary to furnish a kitchen. The dozen guests were seated at a circular table covered with kitchen articles; a small market basket filled with vegetables formed the centerpiece. The different gifts for the guest of honor were placed on the table. This entertainment was one of the most novel ever given in Honolulu and provoked much mirth and gaiety. Those present were Mrs. Alfred Lowrey, Mrs. Ida Koepke, Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Mrs. Gustav Schaefer, Mrs. Frederick Dwight Lowrey, Miss Helen Achilles, Mrs. J. S. Waidron, Miss Bernice Hartwell, Miss Catherine Goodale, Miss Dorothy Hartwell, Miss Beatrice Castle and Mrs. Greenwell.

Lt. and Mrs. Cunningham's Dinner.

Lieutenant and Mrs. Cunningham of the Fifth Cavalry gave an enjoyable dinner Thursday evening at their home at Schofield Barracks. Shasta daisies and maidenhair fern adorned the prettily appointed table. After dinner the party attended the ball that was given at Leliehua. Among those present at dinner were Lieut. and Mrs. Cunningham, Lieut. and Mrs. Barnard, Miss Katherine Stephens and Lieut. O'Connor.

Dinner at Country Club.

Mr. and Mrs. Brainard Smith gave an enjoyable dinner at the Oahu Country Club, complimentary to their relatives prior to their departure for the coast. This entertainment was purely a family affair and was given Tuesday evening. The pretty club house dining room was effectively decorated for the occasion with palms and purple asters and an excellent dinner was served. Among those present were Governor and Mrs. Walter Frear, Mr. and Mrs. Benjamin F. Dillingham, Rev. and Mrs. John Erdman, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham, Miss Fannie Dillingham and Mr. Harry Gaylord.

Judge and Mrs. Whitney's Dinner.

Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, who have recently returned from a trip around the world, were the motif for a pretty dinner that was given Wednesday evening by Judge and Mrs. Will Whitney. Ten covers encircled the beautifully appointed table, which was decorated in yellow, the floral decorations and place cards being in this color. Among Judge and Mrs. Whitney's guests were Governor and Mrs. Walter Frear, Mr. and Mrs. Gerrit Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph P. Cooke and Mr. and Mrs. Harold Dillingham.

Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Campbell's Dinner. A half dozen guests enjoyed the hospitality of Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Campbell at an informal dinner Wednesday evening at their home. Among those present were Mr. and Mrs. Robert Shingle and Mr. and Mrs. Brainard Smith. After dinner the party motored to one of the theaters and enjoyed the vaudeville performance.

Riding Party at Walaie.

A number of young society folk are giving a moonlight riding party this evening. The equestrians will meet at eight o'clock at General Soper's home on Lunalilo Street, and will ride "by the Light of the Moon" to Walaie, where a moonlight supper will be enjoyed on the beach.

Among those who will participate in this delightful affair are the Misses Clorinda Low and Carol Low, Blanche Soper, Ruth Soper, Mary Lucas, Hattie Lucas, Rosie Herbert, Ruth Anderson, Hazel Buckland, Myrtle Schumann, Helen Spalding, Violet Makee, Margaret Center, Violet Lucas, Ethel Paris, Maud Jones, Margaret Jones, Helen Jones, Edith Hart, Abbie Low, Mrs. Eben Low, Messrs. Oscar McCriston, Godfrey Podmore, Alfred Young, Willie Odekerk, Walter Rycroft, Bert Clark, Bob McCriston, George Fuller, Bradford Sumner, Charlie Lucas, Bert Gibb, Edwin Gibb, Cyrl Damon, Percy Doverill, Billie Desha, Henley Chapman, Herbert Shipman, Will Coney, "Babe" Pratt, Will Paris and Rolla Gay.

Society Event at the Country Club.

An event that is being anticipated by the smart set of Honolulu, is the open golf tournament that will be given Thursday, May 18th, at the Oahu Country Club. Mrs. Montague Cooke is captain of the team and is working diligently to make the affair a success. One does not have to be a member of the club, in order to participate in the tournament, all women who are interested in this game are welcome. The nominal sum of fifty cents will be charged as an entrance fee and the entries can be made up to nine-thirty o'clock Thursday morning, May 18th. It will be an 18 hole handicap tournament and it is hoped that a great many names will be handed in, to either Alexander Bell at the Country Club, or Mrs. C. Montague Cooke at Manoa Valley, who are taking charge of the entries. A delicious luncheon will be served at the Country Club for fifty cents. Those who decide to participate of fifty at the club must telephone Mrs. Montague Cooke by Wednesday noon.

The following women have entered in the tournament: Mrs. C. Montague Cooke, Mrs. Richard Ivers, Mrs. M. Phillips, Mrs. George Potter, Mrs. Bernice Walbridge, Mrs. E. W. Sutton, Mrs. Souhate, Mrs. Hansberg, Mrs. Bernice Hartwell, Miss Jessie Kennedy, Miss Wilhelmina Tenney, Miss Muriel Howatt and Miss Beatrice Castle.

Mrs. Gardner Wilder's Dancing Party.

An informal and enjoyable dancing party was given Friday evening by Mrs. Gardner Wilder at her home on Anapuni street. The affair was given in honor of Mr. and Mrs. L'Hommiedieu. The color scheme was yellow, the double drawing rooms and dining room were effectively decorated with yellow chrysanthemums and eucalyptus. Anderson's orchestra was stationed in the library and furnished excellent music. The large lanai was fitted up with tete-tete corners that were utilized during the intermission of the dancing. Lounging chairs and rockers were placed under the tropical palm trees on the lawn surrounding the pretty home. Many of the couples enjoyed the charm of the moonlight night. Mrs. Gardner Wilder and her two guests of honor received in the drawing room. The hostess looked stunning in black satin, fashioned in the latest mode, with an embroidered panel of heavy embroidery. Mrs. L'Hommiedieu looked very pretty in a pink embroidered robe over satin. A buffet supper was served on the large lanai, shortly after eleven o'clock. Among those present were: Mr. and Mrs. L'Hommiedieu, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Bond, Judge and Mrs. William Whitney, Mr. and Mrs. Nelson Fisher Lansing, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Marlin Hepburn, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Wilder, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Wilder, Miss Claire Williams, Miss Julie McStocker, Miss Edith Williams, Miss Lydia McStocker, Miss Edith Cowles, Miss Marion Scott, Miss Helen Brown, Mr. Bruce Cartwright, Jr., Mr. George Schaefer, Mr. Harry Rycroft, Mr. Curzon Usborne, Mr. Henry Blackstone, James McIntyre and others.

Engagement Announcement.

One of the happiest and joyous social gatherings of the week was the "engagement" party held last Thursday evening at the Merrill residence in Palolo Valley. Much hard work had been put in decorating the two large rooms with hearts, cupid's darts and other devices that would convey the meaning of the gathering to the guests who had been invited but had not been told. The rooms were otherwise beautifully trimmed with flowers and asparagus ferns.

After some twenty-five guests had arrived they were requested to surround the large dining room table over which being a tissue paper bag with a ribbon dangling from the bottom. At the request of the hostess, Mrs. Hicks, mother of the bride-elect, pulled the string and from the bottom of the bag came tumbling out the figure of a cat, holding in its paws the inscription "Geneva and Clyde. Congratulations," and it was thus that the "cat was let out of the bag." The hint was potent enough to convince all present that Miss Geneva Hicks and Mr. Clyde Wright had declared their declarations of intentions to travel along down life's pathway hand in hand. Congratulations were in order for the next ten minutes and then those assembled chose place cards and, to keep in tune with the occasion, five tables of "hearts" were soon in swing. Beautiful prizes were awarded for the lowest scores, and strange to say, both first prizes were won by Miss Hicks and Mr. Wright which seems to be a good omen. Delicious teas and cakes were served and the rest of the evening filled in with song and instrumental selections. Among those who wished the engaged couple all manner of good wishes were: Mr. and Mrs. Ormiston, Mr. and Mrs. Riley, Mr. and Mrs. Schoening, Mr. and Mrs. Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Merrill, Mr. and Mrs. Hicks, Mrs. Harriet Evans, Mrs. Thom, Boyd, Mrs. Rileout, Mr. Van Waggoner, Mr. Elmer Evans.

Major and Mrs. Neville were the guests of Captain and Mrs. Koester this week.

The Major and his charming wife attended the Ball at Leliehua Thursday evening. During their stay at Schofield Barracks, they were the house guests of the Koesters.

Dear to the Hearts of the Women.

DR. T. FELIX GOURAUD'S
Oriental Cream
OR MAGICAL BEAUTIFIER
An Indispensable and Necessary Article for Particular Women who Desire to Retain a Youthful Appearance.

Every woman owes it to herself and loved ones to retain the charm of youth nature has bestowed upon her. For over half a century this article has been used by actresses, singers and women of fashion. It renders the skin like the softness of velvet leaving it clear and preparing for daily or evening attire. As it is a fluid and non-greasy preparation, it remains unnoticed. When attending dances, balls or other entertainments, it prevents a greasy appearance of the complexion caused by the skin becoming heated.

Gouraud's Oriental Cream cures skin diseases and relieves Sunburn. Removes Tan, Pimples, Blackheads, Moth Patches, Rash, Freckles and Vulgar Redness.

Yellow and Muddy skin, giving a delicately clear and refined complexion which every woman desires.

No. 10 For sale by Druggists and Fancy Goods Dealers.

Ferd. T. Hopkins, Prop., 37 Great Jones Street, New York.